Congressional leaders and the White House held a meeting Friday to discuss legislative priorities for next year. Both the Senate and House of Representatives are set to work on a series of budget plans over the next two months. But lawmakers face a tight deadline to raise the nation's debt ceiling by the end of the year. Majority Leader Steny Hoyer of Maryland said at the meeting that he hopes his chamber and the Republican-led House can reach an agreement to reduce the deficit. Hoyer said he will make spending cuts and raise taxes "within the current law" for his members. But he said he is concerned about the impact of tax increases for taxpayers. He said they "have to make sure that they are not loaded down with a lot of additional costs." Hoyer, the House's top Democrat, said the two sides want to work together, but it is "going to be tough." House Majority Whip Eric Cantor of Virginia said at the meeting that his chamber will take

Keymacro is a small utility tool designed to allow you to instantly modify all of your windows shortcut keys by changing their respective bitmaps. With it, you can easily configure the windows shortcuts of your own favorite apps. KEYMACRO easily combines two or more icons and displays them on the same desktop window. The bitmaps that you use as background images for your keyboard shortcuts can come from various sources. You can apply them from PNG, JPG, GIF, and BMP files. The key images are easily editable, so you can add text or backgrounds. KEYMACRO does not affect the behavior of the applications. It changes only the appearance of the shortcut keys. With a hotkey, you can easily switch between the bitmaps and return to the original shortcut keys. WHAT IS NEW IN THIS RELEASE: You can add, edit, or remove shortcuts from Windows 7/Vista shortcuts. You can also change the color of the keyboard shortcuts. What's more, you can download the free trial version to evaluate the program before buying it. Also, you can receive help online to solve the possible problems that you may encounter during the process of editing the shortcut keys. For decades the school, first established in 1948 by Fr. John Sheehan and Sisters Eileen Long and Mary Kelleher, had been located in the upper part of Belfast and was only accessible by a small bus service from the city centre. Finally, in 1995, the school moved to a new purpose built school in Derry - the premises at Cappagh were transferred to the 'Twin City Project'. The quality of teaching and the links with the local community had been unassailable and parents, students and the wider parish were unanimous in their praise for the school's achievements. The school became a landmark on the Donegal Road and the Cappagh campus was viewed as a major asset to the area. In September 2017 the School finally transferred from the Twin City 81e310abbf
